The information in paragraphs 1 and 4 came from HAYASHI Saburo by [redacted] The information in paragraphs 2, 3, and 5 came from [redacted] report, as did the first part of paragraph 6. The sections of paragraph 6 which are noted "on 20 March" or "as of 20 March" are [redacted] responses to questions on the earlier report put to him verbally by [redacted]

[redacted] who gets most of his information directly from HATTORI, has not confirmed HAYASHI's charge that a member of the HATTORI Organization has denounced HAYASHI to the Attorney-General's office for pro-Communist leanings, nor has [redacted] ever mentioned rumors to the effect that HAYASHI had such leanings.

Attachment A is a translation of an article on recruitment appearing in the 5 January 1952 issue of Shimbun Zasshi, an allegedly Communist-sponsored magazine (See 23L-779) whose editor-in-chief is SAWA Ichiro, a communist and friend of [redacted] acquaintance and occasional sub-agent, YAMAMOTO Katsujiro.

Attachments B and C appeared on 26 and 29 February 1952, respectively, in Yukinoshu Shinbun.
